

DRIVEN TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE BY PASTOR'S REBUKE

Lecture on Drinking Responsible for His Suicide, Newark Man Writes.

Charles Phillips, a widower, who held a responsible position in the Jersey City office of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was found dead in his room in the boarding house of Andrew Stiff, at No. 11 Court street, Newark, N. J., to-day. He had committed suicide by inhaling gas.

He left two notes, in one of which he asked that his brother, George M. Phillips, of No. 26 Broadway, New York City, be notified. The other note left by the suicide read:

"This harsh act might not have been committed but for a lecture on drinking given to me a few nights ago by a local minister while I was in the presence of several friends."

In accordance with the request of the dead man his brother was notified by telephone and he said he would take charge of the body. Phillips had lived only three weeks at the Court street house and little was known about him there. It is said he was accustomed to indulge in drink at times.

LOFT, NEXT MAYOR; MURPHY SAYS SO

Candy Man Slated by Tammany Leader to Be the Hall's Candidate.

While the day for naming the next Mayor's candidates is a long way off, it is also equally true that the present leader of Tammany Hall is a very prominent man, and it is stated on the most excellent authority that Charlie Murphy has made his selection for the next Mayor of this town.

The story is that the Tammany nomination already has been promised to George W. Loft, the candy man. His name is now on all the important committees in Tammany Hall. He is the President of the Nanticoke Club, of the Seventeenth Assembly District, where he has spent thousands in its rehabilitation. He is an intimate friend of the leader of the Hall and has spent much time at the famous Good Ground farm. Mr. Loft is reputed to be quite a rich man and such a candidate is ever welcome to the organization, which measures a man's popularity by the looseness of his purse string.

It is also announced that Rose Williams, the present Tammany Hall leader in Mr. Loft's district, will be dropped at the next primary and Matthew Donohue, the old leader, again will take on the harness.

Mr. Loft lives in West End avenue near Ninety-eighth street.

PRESIDENT SUSPENDERS

"The Most Comfortable Suspenders I Ever Wore"

That's what you'll say about "Presidents." You'll never feel that you have them on; they fit so perfectly, rest so lightly on the shoulders and are so constructed in the back that they adjust themselves to every motion of the body, relieving all strain from shoulders or buttons.

Isn't that reason enough for insisting upon "Presidents" the next time you buy suspenders? Ask for summer weight lisle. Other weights and lengths to suit all requirements. Highest quality webbing, rustproof trimmings.

Makers' guarantee on every pair: "Satisfaction—New Pair—or Money Back"—means exactly what it says. If your dealer cannot supply you, we will, post-paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents.
